

*He is Risen,
He is Risen indeed!*

These Christmas cacti on my veranda are all blooming now for Holy Week, announcing that our Savior Jesus Christ is risen, victorious over death forever. All glory to His name!

The latest news here is a new website for the Seimat language in which my friends Theresa and Beata have worked since 2002. The Seimat New Testament was produced in 2013, and they continue to work on portions of the Old Testament. They just launched a website so people to have access to the Bible and other resources including the Jesus film. Check this site: www.kakaihaeu.com and note there is an English version as well as Seimat. The photography is stunning.

I am so thankful to be here and to continue serving alongside the Gadsup translation team.

Thank you for your prayers and love always, Marina
